Mayor Linda Calhoun

WELCOME from the MAYOR

I'd like to thank you for your interest in the Red River Conference Center. Built in 2002, this state-of-the-art facility has been very instrumental in Red River's recent growth and headway into the next generation of meetings and conferences. You see, in Red River, a meeting is more than just a meeting. It's an experience your group will cherish for a lifetime. Red River has attracted adventure enthusiasts for decades, seeking memorable experiences in the thousands of acres of national forest surrounding our town. Combine that with the natural beauty of the mountains, the 40 + lodges, shops, and restaurants in walking distance, and the modern conveniences of the Red River Conference Center, and you have the ideal meeting destination. So take a break! This should be about more than business! Let the Red River Conference Center staff arrange activities for your group so you can sit back and enjoy the serenity of the southern Rocky Mountains.

Hope to see you in Red River!

Linda Calhoun

- The event may not be advertised, nor may tickets go on sale, until the event is confirmed.
- Vendor names and set-up are due 30 days in advance.
- Security must be provided at a ration of 1 security guard to every 100 anticipated attendees. Additional security may be needed.

Deposits & Fees

No event is considered confirmed until a rental deposit and damage/cleaning deposit have been paid. Rental deposits will be specified in the contract, and are generally equivalent to 25% of the total rental amount. The damage/cleaning deposit is a refundable $250.00 for the Exhibit Hall, and an additional $250.00 if you choose to rent the Commercial Kitchen. The damage/cleaning deposit for the Council Chambers are $100.00. Both the rental deposit and the damage/cleaning deposit are due along with the signed rental agreement. At the completion of your event, a Red River Conference Center staff member will do a thorough walkthrough with you to make sure that all of the cleaning requirements have been met, ensuring you receive the maximum amount of your deposit back. All balances must be paid 30 days prior to event. Failure to pay on time could result in possible cancelation of your event.

Insurance

The Red River Conference Center may require the Lessee to secure general liability insurance. The Lessee shall be responsible for that expense. The Town of Red River has general liability insurance which covers the basic use of the facility. This insurance covers the Town of Red River only. Please see the full Policies and Procedures for insurance requirements.

Liquor Control

The Town of Red River does have a liquor license. Alcohol is permitted only if arrangements have been made with The Red River Conference Center.

Absolutely no outside alcohol is allowed inside the Red Rive Conference Center. If a guest is found with outside alcohol, they will be asked to leave the premises.

The Red River Marshal's Office reserves the right to close the conference center and end a function early at any time during your rental if they feel it is in the best interest of the guests, public, and conference center staff. Should the Marshal's Office need to be involved in any dispute and have to end your function early you will forfeit 100% of your deposit.

Parking

Parking is available in front of the Red River Conference Center on River Street. Additional parking is available in the Town of Red River parking lot, located at the corner of River Street and Jacks and Sixes (1/2 block east of the Conference Center).

Additional Information

Please help us keep the Conference Center in great shape by:

- Refraining from taping, gluing, stapling, tacking, or otherwise creatively attaching anything to any surface or piece of equipment in the Conference Center. We will be happy to provide you with easels or hang a large banner for you (at an additional cost of $25/banner).
- Please ask a staff member before moving or using any Conference Center equipment or using any empty meeting spaces. A spare table or a vacant room may be intended for another party.
- Please smoke outside of the Conference Center in one of our designated smoking areas.
